Dear [redacted]

I hope you were as pleased as I was by the remarks at the Executive Staff Meeting on Tuesday. The appreciation that Agency executives have for your contribution is perhaps the highest compliment that could be paid to you. It is not easy to come from the "outside," and the history of outside Assistants to Directors from the outside is often recalled in the Agency. You have managed to change that.

On a personal note, I have enjoyed knowing you as well as working with you. Your professional competence is only exceeded by your personal character and loyalty. It's been great having you on the team, and I hope you will continue to stay in touch with me in the years ahead.

I wish you all success in your new challenge. It is a great opportunity and one I know you will discharge with the same distinction.

With many thanks and warmest regards,

Sincerely,

William H. Webster

The Honorable William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster,

As you know, today is my last day as your Special Assistant.

I consider myself extraordinarily fortunate to have had the opportunity to serve as your Special Assistant and to witness your leadership at both the FBI and the CIA, particularly at this time in the history of these two unique institutions. These experiences will be invaluable as I continue in public service as an Assistant United States Attorney.

STAT I leave much easier having worked with your new Special Assistant, [redacted] and knowing how capable his service will be.

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to serve as your Special Assistant. It has been a pleasure and an honor.

Sincerely,

STAT [redacted]
